Working Student – Social Business (m/f)

At Studio Nima, our objective is to accelerate the growth and the emergence of social innovations that sustainably address the world's most pressing issues. Transforming our economic systems to make them more equitable, lifting people out of poverty, making cities more sustainable, promoting gender equality and fighting climate change - many of today's challenges require smart solutions. We have developed, planned, incubated, grown and advised social business models in a wide range of areas and across the globe.

We are looking for a Working Student as of November 2021 ideally for an initial period of 3 months for approximately 10 hours per week to support with different social business projects.

Tasks

- Research about social business and social entrepreneurship activities globally
- Research about social business activities at universities globally
- Support with the development of cases for workshops and trainings
- Support with the development of concepts for social business projects

Requirements

- Good understanding of the social business and social entrepreneurship field
- Good desktop research skills
- At least Bachelor's degree in business related studies, or subjects related to sustainable development and social innovation
- Very good writing skills (English and German)
- Reliable, accurate, proactive and fun to work with
